Implementation and Procurement Reform

Tuesday, February 21, 2012
1:30pm – 2:30pm

RSVP here

As part of the USAID Forward reform agenda, USAID is changing its business processes - contracting with and providing grants to more and varied local partners.

At the next brown bag, USAID's General Counsel Lisa Gomer will discuss the agency's recent developments in implementation and procurement reform (IPR).

Please join us to hear how IPR is being rolled out in the field and how it will impact new and traditional implementing partners.
